History

Q6: When and how was PUP Taguig established?

Answer:

Key milestones in the history of PUP Taguig:

- September 30, 1968 – Proclamation No. 469 set aside 10 hectares of land in Taguig for the Philippine College of Commerce (now PUP).
- 1972 – 1975 – After Martial Law was declared, plans stalled and the land was later occupied by the Metals Industry Research and Development Center (MIRDC).
- September 9, 1990 – The Ground-Breaking Ceremony of PUP Taguig was held.
- February 4, 1991 – The Department of Justice ruled that Proclamation No. 469 remained valid.
- April 1992 – The campaign for the opening of PUP Taguig was approved.
- June 15, 1992 – PUP Taguig held its first classes.

Q7: Who requested the land for PUP Taguig?

Answer:

Dr. Nemesio Prudente, then President of the Philippine College of Commerce (now PUP), requested the land. In response, Proclamation No. 469 was issued on September 30, 1968, setting aside 10 hectares in the Municipality of Taguig for school purposes.

Q8: What was the land dispute with MIRDC?

Answer:

After Martial Law was declared in 1972, the land was later occupied by the Metals Industry Research and Development Center (MIRDC), which claimed rights to it through an unnumbered proclamation dated June 2, 1975. In 1990, the Official Gazette certified that this unnumbered proclamation was never received or published. On February 4, 1991, Justice Secretary Franklin Drilon ruled that Proclamation No. 469 had not been revoked and remained valid.

Q9: Who led the opening of PUP Taguig?

Answer:

In April 1992, at the request of Dr. Samuel M. Salvador (Vice President for Branches and Extension Services), PUP acting President Zenaida Olonan approved the campaign to open PUP Taguig. The team recommended for the task was Dr. Normita A. Villa, Prof. Angelito D. Roldan, Prof. Susan A. Roldan, and Prof. Amelita A. Laurente. Congressman Dante Tinga supported funding in Congress, and a P7 million fund was released for the campus's first two-storey building.

Q10: How many students did PUP Taguig start with?

Answer:

PUP Taguig held its first class session on June 15, 1992, with about 470 enrollees, 15 faculty members, and one clerical staff, housed in a two-storey building that was still being completed.
